Dear Adriano Veloso

This email is to invite you as a program committee member for SIAM International Conference on Data Mining (SDM20), to be held in Cincinnati USA, between May 7 and 9, 2020.

The paper submission will close on Oct 4, 2019 and the author feedback deadline is set for Nov 25. The final paper decision notifications will be sent out by the end of November. We anticipate that the load of SPC will be kept to a smaller load to allow for effective reviewing.

If you choose to accept the invitation, please click the link below to accept.

Since we are forming the program committee and anticipate significantly higher number of submissions, we are forced to create the list of PCs within a certain timeline. The invitation expires on 9/3/2019.

If you choose to accept, please select or confirm your domain conflicts and subject areas on CMT. It is important that you do so to ensure a fast assignment process.

We sincerely hope that you will be able to help us out in making SDM 2020 a success.

Thanks,
Yan Liu and Sriraam Natarajan,
SDM 2020 Program cochairs
